

Children's books take the rapidly developing minds of young people on journeys that mark them for the rest of their lives. Our carefully selected illustrated books cover wide creative ground, coming in various physical shapes and sizes, styles of narrative and messages conveyed. In the following pages, you'll discover giant activity books, witty and playful picture books and engaging tales that redefine classic storytelling. Regardless of their diversity, these books are bound by a common goal: initiating a love of reading as early as possible. With the right alchemy of image, text and imagination, a good picture book can invite a child on the path to an incredible land where the pages turn and turn, and they keep wanting more. Who could resist such an invitation?

MYRMIDON

Loïc Dauvillier & Thierry Martin

In each episode, Myrmidon starts out in his pyjamas. As soon as he finds a costume and puts it on, an adventure begins in the corresponding imaginary world, creating an endless discovery of childhood universes (cowboys, space, knights, pirates, prehistory, etc.) Frame by frame, image by image, young readers conquer the act of reading with pleasure and independence!

LE LOUP EN SLIP

Paul Cauuet, Wilfrid Lupano & Mayana Itoiz

The wolf terrorizes the forest and its inhabitants, who live in constant fear of getting bitten on the backside! That is, until the day the wolf actually comes to the forest. Let's just say he's not exactly what everyone thought... In fact, he's not scary at all! No raised hackles, no glint of madness in his eye, nothing of the sort. But how can the people learn to live without fear when it's become their driving force?

LE TEMPS DES MITAINES

Loïc Clément & Anne Montel

Twenty years before the events that took place in Le Temps des Mitaines, the valley was already the scene of unbelievable events. Celeste, Prosper, Angus and Nocte are four teenagers with nothing in common. They don't share any interests, have very different personalities and don't intend to hang out together. Ever. Unfortunately, an unexpected event brings them together: they end up spending a whole Saturday in detention with Caius, the school bully. Daunting, aggressive, he's the reason bad days exist. They quickly discover they are stuck in a Time Bubble from which they cannot escape, turning an awful day into a complete nightmare. These four conflicting personalities will have to work together to free themselves from the terrible clutches of Eternal Detention.

Franco-Belgian comics have a long tradition of books enjoyed by the whole family. But more than ever, some comic books are being written and drawn especially with young readers in mind. Our selection of children's graphic novels is aimed at early, middle-grade and young adult readers and tackles a surprising range of topics, from friendship to classical dance to a children's branch of the Resistance movement during the Second World War. Genre, too, is widely represented, with action, fantasy, science-fiction, crime and more. It is no exaggeration to say that comics and graphic novels for kids are undergoing a rebirth. Young readers have a seemingly unquenchable thirst for them – and fortunately for parents and educators, they are rich in pedagogical and literary value. It's no surprise that these are the bestsellers in our catalogue and take up the lion's share of the books we publish for children.

YÉZIDIE

Aurélien Ducoudray & Mini Ludvin

Present-day northern Iraq. Zere is a young girl who lives in a small Yezidi village. Her daily life revolves around her parents, her cousin, boys, and the knowledge that the Islamic State is not far away. Until the day she is abducted by jihadists and sold into slavery. Meanwhile, a strange grocer seems to be engaging in suspicious business behind closed doors. Mini Ludvin's subtle artwork is a foil for Aurélien Ducoudray's hard-hitting script in this trilogy following a girl's journey into the war against the Islamic State.

BEATLES-ADDICT, LE RÉCIT D'UNE PHOBIE SCOLAIRE

Magali Le Huche

Magali is 11 years old and loves the Beatles. INTENSELY. What she doesn't love so much is school. And so she slowly takes refuge in the music of the Beatles. In this autobiographical work, Magali Le Huche recounts the phobia that drove her to leave school for two years. She tells the story of the passion that was her refuge and would lead her on the first steps to becoming an artist. She also shows 1990s Paris with countless details as beautiful as they are entertaining.

HÉMATITE

Victoria Maderna & Federico Piatti

This story explores the nature of love and relationships, taking a deeper look at the idealized versions of them that we see portrayed in popular culture. The figure of the classical vampire, a seductive manipulator, powerful and immortal, is turned on its head when a teenage girl steps into the mix. This is a supernatural coming-of-age story in a Victorian fantasy setting.

LES SAUROCTONES

Erwann Surcouf

In the near future, the Earth has become a very different place. An unknown disaster has upended our way of life: cars sit rusting where they stopped, cities have been reduced to no man's lands, and invertebrates have mutated into giant, deadly beasts. Faced with the threat of these roaming monsters, humanity's hopes lie with the Sauroktones, small bands of warriors who risk their lives to fight these creatures. Amid it all, three youths are thrown together by circumstance, and will go to great lengths to stay united, help each other, and make their way through the strange, futuro-medieval landscape of a ravaged world.

Our favorite comics characters are found readily outside the books they were born in: when a young person drinks from a Boule & Bill glass, goes to sleep in Gaston Lagaffe pyjamas, plays outside wearing a Yakari cap or packs a Marsupilami bag for a weekend away, a licence is at work. Licencing not only leads to branded objects of all kinds, but it's also what makes TV series and films based on comics possible, and paves the way for new publishing projects like the Fox-Badger Family books, adapted from the TV series, or the new Yakari books, to be adapted from the upcoming animated movie. In short, licenses have tremendous potential to keep the entertainment coming. Here is a selection of our most successful, most beloved brands available to license.

DUCOBU

Zidrou & Godi

Ducobu is a lovable clown, a bit of a rascal, and notoriously lazy. A "quality" that is not without its downsides... You have to be smart to avoid the humiliating dunce's hat! And, of course, his neighbor Léonie knows everything about everything. But this little madam detests copy-cats, which leaves Ducobu with no choice but to invent ever-more ambitious cheating strategies. Brilliant and full of imagination, Ducobu could do course study just a little bit... but that would be too easy! With a collection of irresistible gags, Godi and Zidrou have created a touching series, and a true ode to freedom and imagination.

Seth is an aspiring wizard from the Pompo Hills region. Like all wizards, he is one of the “infected,” a select group of living beings who survived their encounter with the Nemeses. Seth’s apparent immunity has led him to go on the offensive and attempt to fight these Nemeses. But more than that, Seth is set to embark on a quest that goes beyond hunting monsters. Alongside his friends and allies, he will travel the world in search of the Radiant—the alleged birthplace of the Nemeses—while trying to stay a step ahead of the dreaded Inquisition.
