Journey Around the Sun The Story of Halley's Comet

Written by James Gladstone • Illustrated by Yaara Eshet

This story of Halley's Comet, told from the comet's own perspective, ties the history of the renowned astronomical phenomenon of Halley's return every 75 years with our own human history. The ways that the comet has touched people around the globe for millennia, scientifically and culturally, are revealed.

Carmen and the House That Gaudí Built

Written by Susan Hughes • Illustrated by Marianne Ferrer

This fictional tale about the youngest child of the historical Batlló family, of the famous Batlló House in Barcelona, is a joyful celebration of architect Antoni Gaudí's work. Young Carmen resists her family's move to the city, but she soon discovers Gaudí's ability to turn a stiff city house into a nature-inspired wonder.

The Sorry Life of Timothy Shmoe

Written by Stephanie Simpson McLellan • Illustrated by Zoe Si

Timothy Shmoe is not a bad kid, but sometimes he does bad things. A series of apology notes to his accidental victims reveal how his habit of blunders, mistakes, and antics can sometimes (or all the time) turn his family's world upside-down. Luckily, he will always have their unconditional love—and they will have his.

Chaiwala

Written by Priti Maheshwari • Illustrated by Ashley Barron

Pulling up to the last stop before Jaipur with ten minutes to spare, it's time for chai! A young girl rushes her mother onto the platform for a treat. The chaiwala grounds spices, rustles up tea leaves, and skillfully pours the hot, milky tea. With a sip, they capture a sweet, perfect moment in the rush of a busy day.

The Sour Cherry Tree

Written by Naseem Hrab • Illustrated by Nahid Kazemi

It's the day after the morning that Baba Bozorg forgot to wake up. Before, his snores were so loud you could hear him down the hall. Today, as his granddaughter explores the familiar house, it's quiet. But at every turn she discovers that her Baba Bozorg is still there—in his favorite fig cookies, his giant slippers, and the sour cherry tree he planted years ago.

The Deep Down

Written by Mark David Smith • Illustrated by Lily Snowden-Fine

Caden found something in his backyard. Something BIG. But no one will believe him! So Caden takes up the challenge and, with a little help, unearths an entire mammoth skeleton. This fun paleontological tale teaches the value of trusting your gut, because a little perseverance might just yield mammoth-sized rewards.

Hold That Thought

Written by Bree Galbraith • Illustrated by Lynn Scurfield

Thoughts come in all weights and shapes. Some thoughts are so precious they need time before they burst out loud. One night, Finn wakes to one of those thoughts. It's a good thought, simmering up inside them, but it isn't ready. With encouragement from family and friends, they learn that some ideas, secrets, and thoughts just need a little love and room to grow into something spectacular.

Fred and Marjorie
A Doctor, a Dog, and the Discovery of Insulin

Written by Deborah Kerbel • Illustrated by Angela Poon

In 1921 Dr. Frederick Banting set out to prove the medical uses of insulin on diabetes patients. His discovery saved millions of lives; but the road to success wasn't easy. This story of a doctor and a street dog unpacks the incredible importance of one medical discovery, along with the difficult truths it involved.

Sour Cakes

Written by Karen Krossing • Illustrated by Anna Kwan

Sometimes siblings can be stubborn. Sometimes things can turn sour. But, most of the time, siblings also have each other's backs. When one sibling wants to play and the other only wants to pout, all it takes is a little patience, love, and understanding to brighten the day and turn a sour cake sweet.
