Edizioni Corraini is a publishing workshop open to Italian and international artists, illustrators and designers: a sort of space where tailor-made books and projects see the light.

Among them, Bruno Munari's works stand out. The eclectic Italian artist and designer with whom Corraini set up a long lasting collaboration created a sort of workshop open to creativity and fantasy. Corraini publications are devoted particularly to graphics and design and the collaboration with Bruno Munari brought a special attention to the world of artists' books for children.

Besides our publishing activities Edizioni Corraini also works with public bodies, museums, companies, universities and galleries, to produce books, catalogues, exhibitions and workshops.

Corraini's catalogue includes, among others, works by
Bruno Munari • Suzy Lee • Keri Smith • Noemi Vola • Andrea Antinori • Fausto Gilberti
