My Story

A Kid's Creative Journal for Expressing Yourself

Janine Wilburn

Key Selling Points

- Kid-friendly guided journal is a fun and interactive way for children to reflect, create, and, in the process, learn about themselves.
- Each section builds upon the last. Engaging prompts ask kids to draw, color, and write with creative abandon, and there is also space to record favorite moments and memorable stories.
- Talented and connected author has significant experience, background, and previous product sales in these techniques. Her Touch.Nology program has been in practice for over 15 years and was used by branches of the Department of Defense including: Army National Guard, Army Reserves, Air National Guard, Air Force Reserve, US Navy Seals, and The Pentagon's Yellow Ribbon Program resulting in sales of 17 million total resilience tools and 358,000 books to that audience.
- Users report improved outcomes in the areas of deployment and reintegration issues, such as: building resiliency, connecting/reconnecting with loved ones, inspiring positive communications, improving user's sense of well-being, combating depression, stimulating creativity, providing safe vehicles for children to express themselves, assisting family reintegration, and providing information/tools regarding dealing with PTSD.
- Author has first-hand experience with resiliency and created these products as she worked to recover from a severe spinal injury she sustained in a car accident.
- Recognized as best practice by: Pentagon's Defense Center of Excellence; Defense Center of Excellence recognition; The Child, Adolescent and Family Behavioral Health Proponency of the Army; Homeland Security Studies in the Center for the Study of Traumatic Stress at the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences; National Military Family; Officially a part of administrations war on terror; Military Moms; Harvesting Happiness Radio.
- Based on scientific research in the area of neuroplasticity that focuses on how different thought patterns affect the human mind and body. Thoughts trigger the release of cortisol, dopamine, etc. by the brain, which then impact the health and well-being of the mind and body.
- Excellent choice and helpful gift from parents and caregivers for children who have faced crisis, anxiety or stress.

Summary

Based on science and research on how people build resiliency, this kid-friendly guided journal is a fun and interactive way for children to reflect, create, and, in the process, learn about themselves.

The book is divided into several sections, each one building on the last to encourage thoughtfulness and helpful practices of gratitude and joy. Engaging prompts ask kids to draw, color, and write with creative abandon, and there is also space to record favorite moments and memorable stories.

Great for long car or plane rides or just during down time at home, this journal brings mindfulness to the young ones while also fostering creativity and independence.

This guided journal is the fourth in the Resiliency Guide series, which includes Just Between Us: A Couple's Guided Journal for Building the Life You Want; Family Practices: A Guided Journal of Togetherness and Discovery with Your Loved Ones, and Mindful Intentions: A Personal Guided Journal for Coping with Chronic Pain.

Build It!

Make Supercool Models with Your Favorite LEGO® Parts

By Jennifer Kemmeter

What sets this series apart?

- Visually rich instruction books (not just ideas books) for LEGO® creations.
- Specifically targeted to children ages 5 and up, not to adults or hobbyists.
- Easy-to-follow, step-by-step instructions take the guess work out of building.
- Money-saving, the series works with LEGO® sets, or common bricks kids probably already have at home.
- Gender neutral (much of the competition targets boys).
- "Dioramas" evoke imagination by creating an imaginary scene in which their models can interact.

Play It! Children's Songs

A Superfast Way to Learn Awesome Songs on Your Piano or Keyboard

Jennifer Kemmeter, Antimo Marrone

Key Selling Points

- Perfect for moms, relatives, and educators who want to gift activity and unplugged books; and enthusiasts who have always dreamed of playing an instrument.
- Why is Play It different? Students read the music and strike the correct piano key immediately, skipping months of learning the written language of musical notation and how that translates to the keyboard. It is satisfying, motivating, productive and non-intimidating, eliminating frustration and dread.
- Current competition only provides black and white sheet music.
- Parents are investing more than ever in supplemental education opportunities for their children. Portable keyboard sales are very strong (1m units +, annually) and buyers want accessible, low-priced ways to learn to play.
- Benefits of playing piano: adds neural connections; improves academic/math performance; increases vocabulary and verbal sequencing; aids in foreign language learning; reduces stress and improves ability to handle stress; fosters hand-eye coordination; inspires creativity by requiring player to use both sides of the brain; causes greater aural awareness.
- Priced for impulse buy. Parents may buy the instrument, but be unwilling to invest thousands in lessons unless the child demonstrates a strong interest.
- Serves built-in demand: Most music students annotate their music as a memory aid. This system provides the annotation system and icons are in place with the music already.

Summary

A fun and easy way to learn to play the piano or keyboard, with helpful instruction on classic and favorite songs.

Written by the author of the best-selling Build It! series in collaboration with an experienced piano teacher, the Play It! books teach how to play the piano or keyboard in a simple, effective way. Using color-coded notes and character icons, the books include piano sheets of popular and favorite songs as well as a primer on how to read sheet music and some basic techniques. For beginners ages 5 and up, Play It! is the perfect companion on your musical journey.

Features classic songs like "Mary Had a Little Lamb" and "Greensleeves." Piano labels are included inside the book.

Contributor Bio

Jennifer Kemmeter is a designer and publisher, as well as the author and creator of the best-selling Build It! series, easy and fun LEGO® books with creative building projects for young kids. Her new Play It! series focuses on teaching beginners how to read sheet music and play the piano or keyboard. Through books, she seeks to develop image-based tools to aid children in developing logical and creative approaches to independent problem solving. Jennifer lives in London, England, with twin sons who fill her home with their own piano education.

Antimo Marrone earned a Masters degree from the Academy of Fine Arts in Naples and has taught piano in Italy and the United Kingdom since 2000. He has instructed students of all levels, from beginner to advanced, in technique, music theory, improvisation, composition, and history. Antimo is passionate about developing innovative techniques to help students learn more effectively and become more motivated, and seeks to apply this passion to his love of music and piano.

INKBLOT Drip, Splat and Squish Your Way to Creativity

Margaret Peot

ISBN 9781590787205

Picture Book

USD: $19.95

pages: 56

Full Color Illustrations

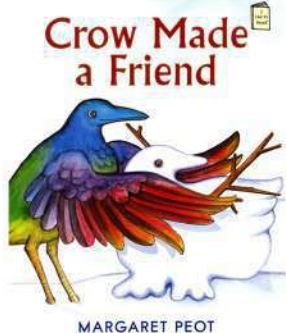

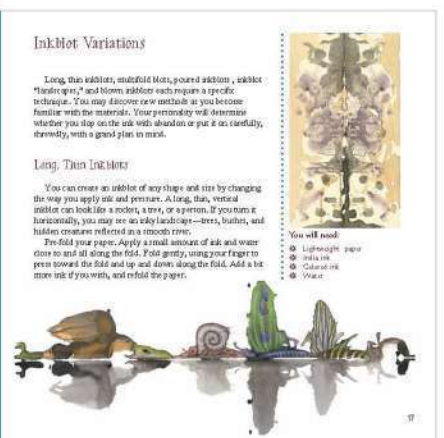

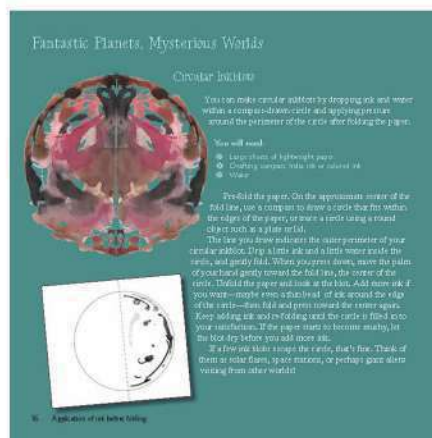

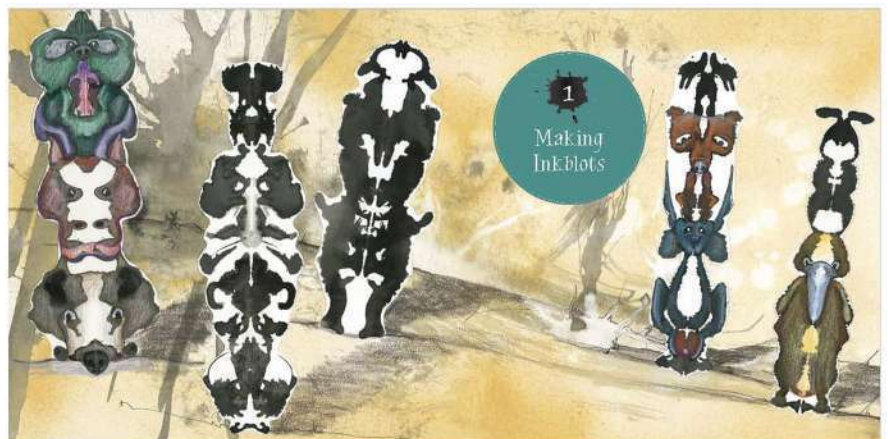

Trim: 10" x 10"

Recommended for Ages 10-17

Inkblots aren't just for psychology... Just as Leonardo was inspired by the haphazard swirls in marble, and Victor Hugo dribbled coffee and wine on paper to create new imagery, Margaret Peot takes inkblots to new creative heights with this stunning, hands-on celebration of their beauty and potential. Basic information on paper and ink as well as advanced techniques for looking and seeing guide readers to transforming inkblots into works of art.

"... Upbeat, practical, and nearly irresistible, this may just be the go-to book on inkblot art." -Booklist, ALA

In addition to writing and illustrating books for children and adults, Margaret Peot has painted costumes for Broadway theaters for over twenty years.

Also available: Crow Made a Friend

Debut author Kunal Kundu brings to life endangered species from around the world in 16 unique, crumpled paper sculptures. Each animal is accompanied by facts on them and how they survive in their habitat.

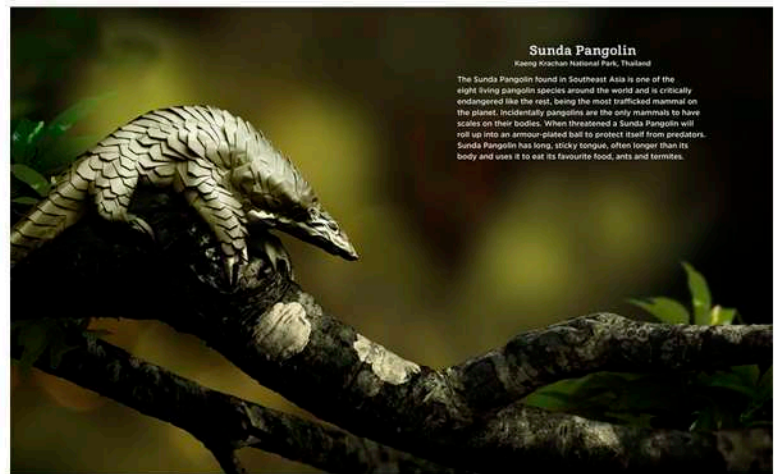

From the Peary Caribou in Northwest Canada to the Galapagos Penguin in Ecuador, the Royal Bengal Tiger in India to the Hawksbill Sea Turtle in Australia, this book celebrates the rich diversity of wildlife on almost every continent.

Kunal Kundu is an award-winning artist who likes to experiment with various styles. He first discovered his signature style in crumpled paper art sculptures when his son, barely a year old, was playing with wastepaper sheets. Kunal creates his art by first shaping paper and then later superimposing them on digital environments, describing the process "like gesture drawing as a paper sculpture." He lives in Kolkata, India.

Put the magic back into reading

Engaging, inspirational and practical – the complete course book and teacher's guide for Reflective Reading. This exciting approach improves attainment, achievement and motivation and offers a coherent, full-week solution to reading comprehension in the primary classroom.

Put the magic back into reading through fun, engaging ideas and activities for the teaching of reading. Create life-long readers with good reading habits, who read for pleasure and appreciate text in all its forms. Ensure higher order thinking skills are embedded within teaching and learning using a new, child-friendly taxonomy – the Comprehension Compass. Teachers and children will enjoy completing and creating Task Maps, Long Reads and Short Reads and TextPlores activities.

Includes photocopiable lesson plans, templates, and downloadable resources – so you can get started straightaway.

Anne Glennie is a literacy consultant and trainer, author of Reflective Reading and Phonics Forever, and owner of The Learning Zoo.

To date, she has trained over 10,000 teachers in all aspects of literacy and assessment in Scotland. A classroom teacher first and foremost, Anne provides training that delegates describe as 'creative', 'fun' and 'inspirational' – with an emphasis on the practicalities of teaching and learning in a primary classroom.
