SOCCER PLANET SERIES

série Planète Soccer

François Bérubé

More than 32,000 copies sold!

Raphaël Rousseau has always been a famous sportsman. He loves soccer above all else and has had many successes as a star player for the Titans.

After winning a regional competition, his team was given the privilege to participate in an international tournament in Quebec City. The Titans faced clubs from all over the world, including France, Italy and Brazil. At the same time, Raphaël's family moves away, turning his life upside down. Even worse, at the beginning of the school year, he is bullied by Jean-Seb, a student at his high school.

It is during the MSL Cup, a sports competition between teachers and students, that Raphaël and Jean-Seb will settle their accounts.

A series for middle-grade readers that explores the themes of intimidation, perseverance, teamwork, friendship and family.
