The three bears returned from their walk. When they stopped into the kitchen, they knew right away that something was wrong. "Someone's been eating MY porridge," growled Papa Bear.

"Someone's been eating MY porridge," said Mama Bear. Baby Bear saw his empty bowl on the table. "Someone's been eating MY porridge, and it's gone!" he cried.

The three bears decided to check upstairs. "Someone's been sleeping in MY bed!" roared Papa Bear. "Someone's been sleeping in MY bed!" cried Mama Bear. "Someone's been sleeping in MY bed," whispered Baby Bear. "And she's still here!"

THE THREE LITTLE PIGS

ISBN: 978-1-954738-59-1

Once upon a time, there were three little pigs who lived with their mom in a tiny house in the woods. But the pigs were getting bigger, and there wasn't much room in the house anymore.

"It's time for you to move out and build your own houses," their mom said. "But watch out for the big, bad wolf!" So the three little pigs set out on their own.

The oldest pig looked out the window and saw his brothers running at full speed toward his house.

"Big brother, let us in!" the pigs cried. "The big, bad wolf is chasing us!"

So the oldest pig in the brick house opened the door and let his brothers in. They locked the door and hid.

CAN I USE YOUR PHONE?

ISBN: 978-1-956560-95-4

BE CAREFUL WITH THE PHONE!

Moni was grumpy. "My friends aren't home," she said. "I don't have anyone to play with."

She held Mommy's phone in her hand. She was very careful not to dial a number! Suddenly, she had an idea.

She showed Moni pictures of happy animals. "You can learn letters and numbers, or even read a book on my phone!"

Moni felt so happy.

Thank you, Mommy.

I will take good care of your phone!

Mommy brought Moni into the living room. "You can have fun with my phone," she told Moni. "But you have to use it the right way. And take care of it."

So Theo joined a dance class, but he just couldn't seem to keep up. Then he kicked his leg too hard, and his shoe flew off and landed on the teacher's head!

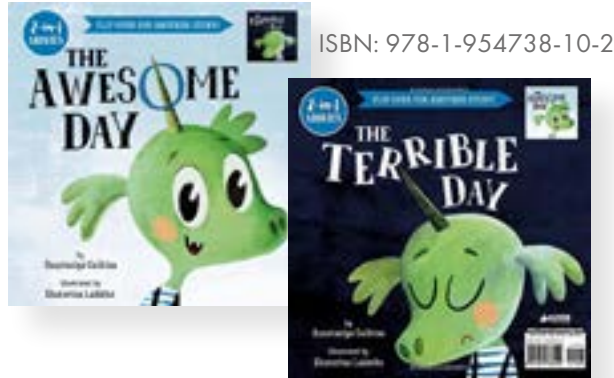

Oh, no!

"Everyone laughed at me," Theo told Morry after class. "I don't want to go back!"

THE AWESOME DAY/ THE TERRIBLE DAY

Softcover Available – ISBN: 978-1-954738-65-2

"It's so nice to see you," Theo said cheerfully. "And I know what will make it even better! I'm going to buy a chocolate bar." Just as he entered the store, he felt someone step on his tail.

"No, I'm fine," Theo replied. "I'm Theo!" "I'm Annabel," the girl said.

Theo saw Charlie tossing rings into the air and catching them on his horns. "Hi, Theo!" Charlie called. "Do you want to try?" "Sure," Theo said. He tossed a ring high into the air and tried to catch it, but he missed. He tried again but missed the second one, too.

Hardcover | 32 pages
255x255 mm | Ages 3-7 years

"I know!" Theo exclaimed. He put a ring on his tail, nose, and horns and spun them around.
