About Us

Founded in January 1978, Shanghai Translation Publishing House (STPH) is a leading publisher in China with a comprehensive backlist and renowned reputation for translated works. STPH publishes a wide range of titles including literary, philosophy and social science, bilingual dictionaries, reference books and children's books. Following the idea of "full types of copyrights, various forms of works", STPH keeps exploring the possibilities of publications in the new century and dedicates to innovations to cater to readers' new needs. Apart from traditional paper books, STPH now also presents digital publications as well as cultural creative products and course services.

STPH builds itself as an iconic cultural brand with a good reputation in multiple fields and many national honors and awards. In 1992, STPH was awarded the title of "National Advanced Unit of Press & Publication System". In 1993, it was recognized as one of the first 15 "National Excellent Book Publishing Units". In 1998, it was awarded as "National Excellent Publishing House". In 2009, it was awarded as "National First Class Publishing House" and "National Top 100 Book Publishing Units". In 2011, it was awarded as "National Advanced Organization of Press & Publication System". In 2013, it was awarded the "Most Influential Enterprise of China Copyright of the year" by the National Copyright Administration. In 2014, it was awarded as "Model of Transformation in Shanghai Digital Publication"; in 2015, it was awarded as "Advanced Unit of Shanghai Language Work"; in 2018, it was awarded as "Most Influential Enterprise of China Copyright of the Year" by National Copyright Administration; it was awarded "May 1 Labor Medals" in the same year.

STPH holds a strong backlist of classic foreign literature works and keeps introducing contemporary foreign masters' works to Chinese readers. It proudly presents works of significant writers including Jorge Luis Borges, W. H. Auden, Philip Roth, Haruki Murakami, Kazuo Ishiguro, E. B. White, Milan Kundera, Marguerite Duras, Umberto Eco, Simone de Beauvoir, Ian McEwan, Margaret Atwood, Hilary Mantel, Czeslaw Milosz, Arthur Miller, Ray Bradbury, Jean-Jacques Sempé, Bernhard Schlink, Joseph Brodsky, etc.

In the field of philosophy and social science, STPH publishes works not only with high academic value, but also with trending topics which answers readers' doubts and concerns. It presents works of Alain de Botton, Susan Sontage, Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr., Ezra Vogel, Henry A. Kissinger, Kenichi Ohmae, Atushi Miura, etc. "Yiwen Documentary" series is STPH's signature non-fiction collection, dedicating to narrative non-fiction titles with strong storytelling and authenticity. The series contains over 90 books so far and enjoys great popularities and recognition among Chinese readers as an established non-fiction brand.

STPH also has a leading position in language learning and reference book field. The "English-Chinese Dictionary (Second Edition)" published by the house is one of the best English-Chinese dictionaries published in China so far and has won the first "China National Book Award". Other high-quality reference books includes: "New English-Chinese Dictionary", a bestseller of bilingual dictionaries in China with accumulative sales exceeding 13 million copies; "Practical Japanese-Chinese Dictionary", "New French-Chinese Dictionary", "New German-Chinese Dictionary (Third edition)" and "Cobuild English-Chinese Dictionary". Furthermore, the house offers a wide range of language learning textbooks with multimedia products and enhanced services, covering English, French, German, Spanish, Russian, Japanese, and Korean.

Children's Books Center (CBC) of STPH, founded in November 2017, dedicating to books for children aged 0-12, has already become an influential new brand in children's book field in China. CBC follows a developing path of two parallel tracks, "domestic original & foreign translated". Featuring the idea of "publishing + education", CBC offers a comprehensive reading experience with an integration of publication, communication and service. Since foundation, CBC has developed several popular series: "Charlotte's Library: full colored illustrated edition", "Charlotte Library: Classic edition", "Charlotte Library: Pinyin edition", "CBC Picture books", "Creative Fun Courses", "Qin Wenjun's Campus Growth Series", "Bunbear Fantasies", "Grocery Store of Gaga's", etc. Many of the publications receive popularities among millions of young readers, such as "Charlotte's Web", "One Day I Will Grow Up", "Agatha Mistery", "A Little Bit Brave", "A 13.8 Billion Year Journey", and "Jia Li in Primary School: Reckless and Witful Buddies". CBC of STPH selects high-quality world-wide children's literature from a professional perspective, aiming to expand children's reading horizon and create distinct childhood memories for its readers.

In 1988, STPH introduced ELLE, a world-renowned fashion magazine brand, into China, which leads to the publishing of the first fashion magazine in China: ELLE China. Today, based on the close collaboration between Hearst Media and STPH, ELLE China is still a leading brand magazine in China's fashion industry.

STPH regards copyrights as the core of all business and has built a high-quality copyright management team over time. Currently, Rights Department of STPH has a professional staff with multi-language and multidisciplinary learning background. The team works with up-to-date information and tools, flexible and innovative thoughts, and high efficiency. The dedicative and diligent team with solid professional skills contributes to a reliable copyrights operation and protection mechanism.

STPH imports more than 400 titles every year. Meanwhile it works hard on bringing Chinese authors to the world. "The Theory of Language Holography" by Qian Guanlian has been released by Springer in 2021. In the same year, STPH set up "International Copyright Center", aiming to introduce excellent Chinese literature and culture to the world. Up to now, the center has sold rights of works of Shuang Xuetao and Wang Yin to Italy, Mexico, USA and Republic of Lithuania, etc.
