By clicking on the button, children can listen to excerpts from key works of classics, learn a little about the composers themselves, and also learn how to connect music and painting in their imagination. The sound module built into the book includes seven pieces of music, the duration of each fragment will be about 20 seconds. The collection «Great Composers» of four books teaches children to develop a sense of beauty, to «see» music first through the eyes of an artist, and then with their own.

Fairy tales in the style of great painters

Over 50 000 copies sold

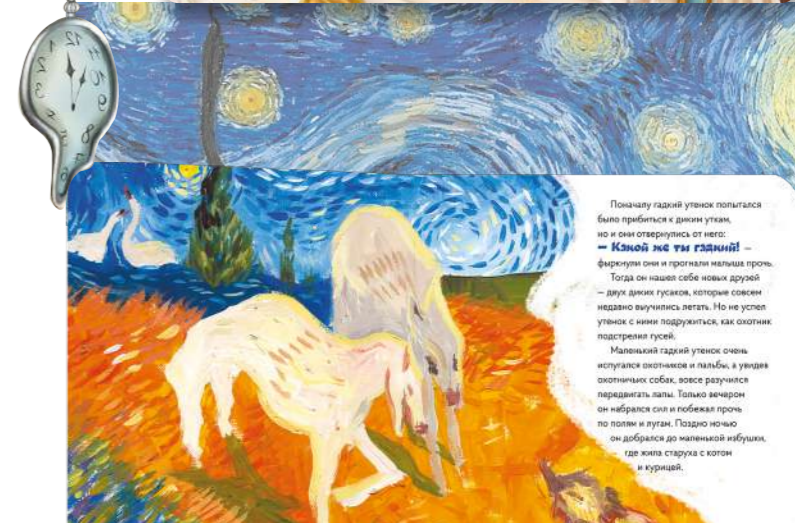

The stories in this series of books are fairy tales familiar from childhood, which were told to us at night. The bright heroes of these stories – witches, brave girls and boys and unusual animals – managed to help find a place in the world and teach kindness, courage, honesty and friendship.

A new vision of the illustration. In each book you will find a colorful illustration created in the style of one or another artist. We did not choose him for each story randomly. The manner of the painter's writing complements the story. So the completely unreal story of Alice in Wonderland is complemented by surreal illustrations in the style of Dali, the sad story of the Little Mermaid is accompanied by a light haze of sadness and misty expanses of Claude Monet, and the Ugly Duckling finds himself in the colorful world of Van Gogh's nature.
